A monthly dispatch from Joyce A. Miller, Writer

HOW CAN YOU NOT DANCE TO “SEPTEMBER”?

A GLIMPSE OF WHAT'S INCLUDED:

A bookshelf to keep track of the books you've read this year!

Several things going on this month! I'm going to be featured in Richmond author Robin Farmer's September newsletter. You can sign up and read her newsletter by going to her website:

<https://www.robinfarmerwrites.com/>

Robin is an author, journalist, and speaker. Her debut novel Malcolm and Me is a coming-of-age story about a teen girl set in 1970s Philadelphia but so relevant today. I listened to her do a reading from her book at a March Book Break event at the Library of Virginia.

On September 17th I will be a guest on the show Petty Talks TV, where pets and people talk. This show is live on the first and third Saturday of every month at 5am in the Philippines. I'll be recording the session on September 7th. I'm going to talk about writing my book Look! You're Dancing, greyhound adoption and dog dancing. Please watch my social media and I'll be posting a recording of the show there so you don't have to be awake at 5am to see it!

September 21st is Dance with your Dog Day to the song “September” by Earth, Wind and Fire. Demi Adejuyigbe, a comedian and writer, started making a dance video every year on September 21 in his apartment wearing a white t-shirt with the date on it. Somewhere along the line, someone hooked onto his star and declared that not only should you dance on September 21st, but you should also do it with your dog! In 2014 our tap class tapped at the recital to “Let’s Groove” in black sequined pantsuits with red trim. Put on any song by Earth, Wind and Fire and I dare you not to start dancing!

As a bonus for September’s newsletter, I’m including a pdf bookshelf for you to keep track of the books you’ve read this year. I already filled in a couple of titles for you! If you enjoy this, let me know by dropping me an email joycemiller1959@gmail.com. I’d love to hear from you!

Do what you came here for!

I live in the Church Hill section of Richmond, VA with my husband and my retired racing greyhound. Before I started writing, I worked for 30 years at a nuclear physics research laboratory.
